Shawanosowe School Art Show a Success!

Shawanosowe School’s First Annual Art show took place Monday April 30th. Over a period of five weeks, Shawanosowe Students were given the opportunity to work with Blake Dehassige while creating their own masterpieces. In total 36 paintings were displayed, each showcasing the artist’s imagination and their newfound use of the medium acrylic on canvas. Parents were also invited into the gallery style viewing to discuss the artwork with the students who were given the opportunity to describe and talk about their work.

Congratulations to the budding artists on displaying your vision, and Miigwetch to everyone who made this event possible.

Please note that the deadline for submissions for the next issue is Wednesday, May 16th, 2018 at noon. Miigwetch!

Aanii/boozhoo Community Members

We had a number of programs this past April. Starting with the Anishinaabe-mowin Language Class with Elder Marion McGregor and Lisa McGregor, Language Instructor. As you know it is our language important as it is an integral part of our identity as Anishinabek. Participants are now beginning to form small sentences, and can identify words and topics when being told a story in the language. The program takes place every Wednesday, and is for all levels of learners from beginner to fluent speakers. Therefore, I encourage every community member to come out and participate, learn and even share their knowledge.

Earth week was a success, and I hope everyone had a good time and took in some valuable information about Energy Conservation, the Three R’s, The benefits of Gardening and the Earth Friendly Products for Your Home workshops. The Creation Story with Jim Dumont has been rescheduled to June 2nd & 3rd, 2018. I am so excited to have the opportunity to listen to this amazing Elder and Grandfather share this story and teaching with us. I encourage everyone to come out and participate.

We have a busy month of community events coming up in May starting with our Spring Fling. I will be working with Crystal Clark-McGregor, Right to Play Community Mentor to host a spring fling event for the community. Participating in the Spring Fling will give community members the opportunity to declutter your homes, make a bit of cash and give back at the same time! How? The spring fling is a large indoor yard & craft sale designed to bring everyone together to make a buck for their unwanted belongings. Vendors rent the tables at $10/each, and admission for patrons is a non perishable food item that will be collected at the door, and anything you do not wish to keep or take back home can be put in a donation bin for the Manitoulin Family Resource Centre Food Bank & Thrift Shop! Our youth from the community will also be hosting a car wash and making canteen sales to fundraise for their programs. The entire event is a win, win, win, win for all. Therefore, I encourage you all to come out and participate!

On May 12th, 2018 we have our Annual Mothers Day Brunch & Spa happening at Rainbow Lodge! This year the brunch will be extra special for all the moms, the Men from our community have volunteered their time to prepare a mother’s day meal to honor all the mom’s. I am super excited for this event, please R.S.V.P for the brunch, and the spa activities are first come first serve. I will see you all there!

Last but not least, the Spring Fast will be happening from May 23rd – 27th, 2018. We will be having an information night on Wednesday, May 9th, 2018 from 6-8pm at the Youth & Elders Centre. Therefore, if you or someone you know is interested in volunteering, learning about the fast or would like to go fasting please come out the information session. Miigwech.

If you would like more information and would like to contact me about any of the programs or services that are provided, please contact me at the Health Centre at 705-285-4354 or you can email me at candicea@whitefishriver.ca.

The Carrot Family Part 2
In this article I’m going to focus on growing three plants from the carrot family that are herbs; Dill, Parsley, and Cilantro.

Growing Dill
Dill will happily grow in poor or moderately rich soil with a pH balance between 5.0 and 7.0 with full exposure to the sun. Water them regularly, but avoid over head watering after the plant reaches 24” tall to avoid mildew from forming on the leaves. Sow the seeds directly into the soil from the end of May until August, if you are using Dill for pickles it is best to sow the seeds in June so the plant will mature the same time cucumbers are ready to be harvested. Dill seeds need some light to germinate and should be sown ¼” directly into the soil and 18” apart. Germination will take anywhere from 10-20 days. Harvesting the leaves can begin when the plant reaches around 6” tall. At 12 weeks after planting the seed heads will begin to form, once the seed heads turn brown cut them to harvest. Dill is a very important plant for attracting beneficial insects like hover flies and predatory wasps into your garden that will take care of any unwanted insects that may be harming your plants.

Growing Parsley
Parsley is usually just seen as a garnish but it has a lot of culinary uses and has a higher amount of Vitamin C than an orange. Parsley prefers to be in soil that has a lot of well rotted manure or compost worked into it. It will grow the best if it is not in direct sunlight and will benefit from some shade. Parsley does like to be well watered but also is fairly drought tolerant once established. Parsley seed can be very slow to germinate compared to other herbs, soaking the seeds overnight can help give them a head start. Sow the seeds directly into the soil three weeks before the last frost date. The seed should be sown 1 ¼” deep spaced about 3” apart. When the plants start growing; thin them to about 6” apart giving them room to mature and grow. The leaves can be dried and stored or for the freshest flavor cut the amount of leaves you would use for a recipe, add to an ice cube tray with a little water and freeze them. Once they are frozen you can put them in a freezer bag for future use.

Growing Cilantro
Cilantro and Coriander are actually the same plant it is just the names of the different parts of the plants that are used. The leaves of the plant are called Cilantro and the seeds, which have a different taste than the leaves, are called Coriander. This plant will give you two herbs in one. Prepare the planting area by adding compost or well rotted manure. Cilantro will grow best in cool direct sun, planting it so it receives morning or afternoon sun is best. Avoid direct midday sun to prevent it from bolting and going to seed too quickly. Plant the seeds ¼” into the soil in late spring or in early summer. After the seeds begin to sprout thin them leaving 6”-8” between the plants. Pinch back the plant when they are young, to maximize the production of leaves when growing for Cilantro. Cut off the main stem as it starts to develop to allow the plant to put production back into the leaves instead of developing seeds. If you would like to harvest Coriander allow the plant to go to seed, cut the seed head off when it turns brown. Place the seed heads upside down in a brown paper bag to catch the seeds.

I hope you have found this informative and enjoyable to read. If you have any questions you can post them on my Facebook page @ 13 Moons Garden.
Education Manager - Jacinta Shawanda

Aanii Kina Wiiya!

What an exciting time to be working in the Education Department of Whitefish River! We are moving into a new era of self-government with respect to Education. The Education Law has been passed at the Chief and Council and our Education Committee will be working closely with the Daycare, Local School, and Education Department to ensure our policies are serving our members and citizens to the best of our abilities.

In the future, my regular column will highlight programming that is available here in our community, scholarship and bursary information, and other important announcements in Education. For this issue of the Rezound, I would like to share the following scholarship information:

“The Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada recognizes that Indigenous languages are a fundamental and valued part of Canada's culture and that there is an urgency to preserve them. To qualify, students must be completing their final year of high school, have achieved an average of 80 per cent or higher and have demonstrated a commitment to preserving Indigenous languages and culture. First Nation, Métis and Inuit students are eligible to apply for the NELSON scholarships, each valued at $3,000 plus $500 of NELSON product. The scholarships are in addition to NELSON's Civic Scholarships program. The scholarship application process will be open from April 3, 2018 until June 29, 2018. To learn more about the scholarship application requirements and details, please visit: nelson.com/scholarship”

Librarian - Evelyn Jacko

Aanii fellow community members, the library has gone through many changes in the past years. I invite you to come and have a visit and enjoy what our library has to offer.

We have 3 computer stations with internet access and Microsoft office programs. We have FREE Wi-Fi, so if you need to update your phone or even your laptop feel free to access this resource. We also have a variety of books old & new, as well as toys for the little ones. Early Learning Stations offer an introduction to computers for children and their parents.

Working with the Food Security program, we will be starting a seed library along with a gardening tool lending program. Soon Mother Nature will let spring shine through. Trust her - she knows what needs to be done for her environment.

Pending funding, I would like to have various programs for all ages. I am also planning on getting more software for the library to assist with learning experiences, such as “how to use” tutorials. I will inform you when a program and tutorials become available.

Until then, I would like to invite any one that would like to learn: basic computer skills, maybe create a social media account, or even how to use online banking - to come in! I may also be able to help with your mobile phone. I will do my best to teach you the basics.

I know some are very sceptical about banking online. I myself use online banking because of the convenience of not having to go directly to the bank or town to send a couple of bucks to someone (e-transfer, emt) or pay bills. It’s up to you - I’m here to help!

We have a printer that can fax and scan if needed. Printing is free for Education and Employment purposes only. Printer fees are B&W $.50 cents for the first sheet and $.25 cents for additional sheets. A colored picture full page is $2.00 and additional sheets $1.50 prices are posted.

Happy Mother’s Day, have the greatest day ladies!

The Library’s hours of operations are Tuesday – Saturday 1-7p.m. Phone # 705-285-1888 Email: evelynj@whitefishriver.ca

Communication

I am very grateful to The Rezound. This is a key communication tool for the Community which also provides an opportunity to showcase everything we do within Whitefish River First Nation.

In my short time here as Manager, I have seen Rezound contribute to:
1. Building and maintaining relationships in the community
2. Bringing ideas forward and facilitates innovation
3. Positive growth of our Community
4. Demonstrating transparency

I hear people outside our community talk about The Rezound and how impressed they are in how informative our monthly publication is.

We created something very wonderful with The Rezound and it takes a lot of work to get this publication out each month. Our Rezound Editor, Tammy works very hard each month to get our monthly publication out. I would like to acknowledge Tammy for all of her hard work.

Chi-Miigwech Tammy!

I am always available to the community, please feel free to drop by for a visit and have a Mkade Miskodiimin Naaboo (coffee) on us. You can also email me at ajacko@whitefishriver.ca or call me at 705-285-4335 or my cell at 705-863-3027.

Construction is fully underway at the Elevated Storage Reservoir project.
Greetings Citizens!

My name is Esther Osche and as the Trust Coordinator for the Whitefish River First Nation Boundary Claim Trust Working Group I provide a monthly report that provides an update on the activities of the Trust Working Group and our engagement with citizens on the development of a draft Trust Agreement. The Working Group has now completed their compilation of the Trust Survey Results and citizen sessions feedback into the first draft of the Trust Agreement.

Purpose of A Trust Agreement for the Whitefish River First Nation:

The Whitefish River First Nation has reached a draft Boundary Claim Settlement Agreement with the federal government of Canada that specifies a settlement offer amount. The draft Settlement Agreement requires the First Nation to develop a Trust Agreement to flow, preserve and protect the Settlement offer amount. The draft Settlement Agreement funds.

A Trust Agreement is a Rule Book that preserves and protects the settlement offer funds for today’s and future citizens.

A Trust Operates as a separate legal entity and its function along with Trustees, is limited to receiving the Settlement funds, investing the Trust property and, making an annual payment to the First Nation. The decision to determine how to spend the annual payment is left up to the community and is outlined in the Trust Agreement.

The Trust Working Group’s Role in the Development of a Draft Trust Agreement: The Working Group provides representation and input into a draft Trust Agreement template. They will accomplish this with input from the citizens at community sessions.

Preparations for the upcoming May Community Engagement Sessions as reported in the April update, three engagement sessions took place as planned on March 22nd in Birch Island, March 23rd in Sudbury and March 29th in Toronto. The Trust Survey was utilized as a tool to obtain feedback on what citizens were thinking about on the developments of a first draft Trust Agreement. All sessions provided excellent citizen input through the Trust Survey, feedback and many good comments!

The Trust Working Group have accomplished their next stage of the WRFN Trust Process by meeting on April 30, 2018, to go through the exercise of preparing the first draft of the trust agreement. The Working Group assembled all Trust Survey results into a Trust Survey Engagement Summary Report. All citizen comments, input and feedback from the sessions were assembled into Separate Session Reports that highlighted citizen comments, feedback and questions. The first draft of the trust agreement created from this process is currently being reviewed by legal, the Trust Working Group and the WRFN Council to prepare it for presentation to the citizens.

The Trust Working Group now looks forward to entering the next stage in the WRFN Trust Process by attending the May 2018 Community Engagement Sessions for the presentation of the first draft of the trust agreement to Both On and Off-Reserve citizens. These sessions will engage and inform citizens on the first draft content to determine if the draft contains everything citizens wanted included in the Trust Agreement design. Further input and refinement will take place if revisions are needed. The Trust Working Group encourages all citizens to plan ahead to attend and view the first draft of the trust agreement created by their input. This will also be an opportunity to help further refine the draft so it comes closer to meeting citizen’s expectations. Your input is valuable and important. Please make every effort to attend. This is your chance to review and have a say on the content of your draft Trust Agreement.

IMPORTANT UPDATE: The Trust Working Group has moved their May 12, 2018 Toronto Engagement Session from the Indian Friendship Center of Toronto to the Chelsea Hotel located at 33 Gerrard Street West in downtown Toronto. The meeting will be held in the Gerrard Room from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

UPDATE ON MAILING LIST: at our February and March sessions, citizens requested they be mailed out the information shared at the community information and engagement sessions. This task has now been completed as requested. Please keep an eye out for your Trust Developments Information package that will arrive in your mail.

Not all citizens can attend the sessions or, have access to computers and can view our website. We have received comments to prepare a mailing list for those individuals who fall into this category so information shared at the sessions can be mailed out to citizens to keep them informed on trust developments. You can send the Trust Coordinator either a letter, email at eosche@whitefishriver.ca or, telephone call at 705-285-4335 and request to be put on a mailing list to receive information shared at the sessions or uploaded to the website. The information will be sent out to you as soon as we receive your request.

Questions: We encourage citizen feedback and questions at all times throughout the trust development process. Please send a letter or, email to the above-noted email address to the attention of Esther Osche, Trust Coordinator. A response will be prepared and sent back to you. The WRFN Council has approved a Citizens Queries Column for our home webpage. Please let us know when you submit your questions if you would like the questions and our responses to be shared at the website location.

The WRFN Trust Process Chart: the chart has been developed as a guide for all to follow as the development of the draft trust agreement process unfolds. The Process chart is attached for your review.

Economic Development Officer
Keith Nahwegahbow

WRFN and the Anishinabek Ontario Fisheries Resource Centre (AOFRC) are anxiously waiting for the snow to stop and the weather to warm for the Walleye run. Year 2 the Walleye Spawning and Tagging Survey in the Whitefish River will begin as soon as the water is ice free and the temperature exceeds 8°C. In the meantime I would like to remind everyone about the Walleye moratorium. Respect the harvesting limit during the spawning season and remind others to protect the Walleye at this critical time of the year. Please do not harm the large female walleye as they are the biggest contributors to the spawning run.

Coming in May I will be attending a strategic planning session for Mnidoo Mnising Employment and Training (MMET). This will be my first time through a planning session with MMET and will take it as a learning experience. Also in May, I will be attending two events hosted by Waubetek. The first is a free session on Marketing your Business. The marketing strategy is a crucial component of a business plan. I look forward to this session to learn about how to advertise and market some of our local businesses. I also encourage any community members / entrepreneur’s to attend this free session. For registration and more info contact Waubetek. Next I will be attending the annual Economic Development Session hosted by Waubetek. This is my chance to network with other first nation economic development officers. Here I will be looking for advice on strategic planning, small loan funds, and small business start-up.

Summer student jobs and a busy employment season are quickly approaching and I intend to keep the job board full in the employment resource room. Any one that needs to write or needs help writing a resume/cover letter is encouraged to visit the employment resource room at the WRFN Administration Office. There are plenty of resources to assist you in writing a resume and cover letter.

Last month I placed the Local Business Directory in the Rezound. I would like to include local artist, caterers, facilitators, and any other business or service provider. I’ll leave the attached form to be filled out. If you want to be included on the list, please send the following information to Keith Nahwegahbow, Economic Development Officer.

For more information, please feel free to contact me at 705-285-4335 ext. 216 or via email at keithn@whitefishriver.ca

Community Energy Advisor
Tania Jacko

Aanii Kina Wiya!

Have you ever heard of phantom power? Don’t be alarmed! It has nothing to do with the power of phantoms. The chances of phantoms being in your house at any given time are 0.46%, and even then, I made that fact up. I highly doubt there are phantoms in your house.

Phantom power refers to appliances or electronics that draw electric power by simply being plugged in. The appliance or electronic could be turned off, but it will still draw power.

Although, I’m not sure why they call it phantom power, because it’s vampires that are believed to survive from drawing human blood, so it makes sense that the term should have been drawn from that analogy. Perhaps it is because phantoms play the piano when they think they are alone. Regardless of where the term originated from, there are things you can do to combat phantom power.

Unplug appliances/electronics when not in use. If you have trouble with this one, consider purchasing a power bar. Grouping electronics that are used together will also make it easier. Keep an eye out at local stores that participate in Deal Days. Deal days are usually held twice a year (spring and fall) to provide discounts for the purchase of energy saving devices.

Unplug Chargers. Only keep your cell phones, tablets, and other devices that require chargers plugged in until they are charged. Then unplug the chargers. “Up to 50% of the electricity they draw is lost as heat.”

Don’t forget to unplug your: hair dryers, curling irons, electric shavers, vacuums, and other small kitchen appliances. There are power bars with timers in case you are the type that needs your coffee as soon as you wake up. A power bar with a timer actually sounds like a luxury, I may need, since I often end up forgetting to plug in my toaster oven before I use it. I end up waiting 10 minutes and my food is cold. I either have to restart my toaster over or eat my meal cold.

So, in summary, make sure all your outlets are free unless you are using it.

If you have any questions or ideas that Whitefish River may be able to pursue in the Energy Sector please feel free to contact me at (705) 285-4335 or by email at energyadvisor@whitefishriver.ca, or stop by the administrative office. You can also ask your Community Energy Committee members.

As always, remember to turn off the lights when you leave a room that is not in use.

What a challenging spring 2018 proved to be. Old Man Winter just would not let go and allow us to cruise into summer. I wish to express my gratitude to the public works crew for their hard work and dedication to keeping our roads clean and safe. The public works crew keeps an on-call schedule throughout the winter months ensuring even on weekends and throughout the holidays our community is running smoothly.

Water Plant operations will be flushing the fire hydrants and water mains the week of May 7th to 11th, 2018. This maintenance is scheduled twice a year ensuring all of the fire hydrants are in working order and to ensure any sediment build up in the water mains are flushed out. To reduce the amount of water used, directional flushing is practiced here. The Water Plant operators will be starting, Monday May 7th, 2018 in the Lower Bowl, Bay of Islands Road, Shawanoswe Street, and Red Eagle Road. On Wednesday May 9th, 2018, starting by the Water Tower we will be moving along Maple Heights Road finishing at the top of the hill on Maple Heights Road. Thursday May 10th, 2018, we will be working along Maple Heights Subdivision down to Rainbow Ridge Road finishing across from the daycare. Work will be completed by Friday May 11th, 2018 on Rainbow Ridge Road. If you live on any of the streets listed please be aware that water pressures may change during the flushing and some discoloration may occur. If you notice discoloration run your cold water tap until the water clears up. If the water does not clear up notify the operators or call the Water Treatment Plant at 705-285-0007.

In March I had the opportunity to attend a workshop on Asset Management with regards to climate change. Climate change has been a large issue for over 10 years, with information now being processed to show actual data on how this unfortunate change is now affecting our assets. (Buildings, roads). With temperatures changing more rapidly from extreme cold to extreme warm the effects on the roads, and buildings starts to show with frost heaves and cracks in the foundations, culverts freezing and thawing, roads getting covered with snow before they are frozen, and roads thawing out mid-winter, extreme wind storms causing wind damage to shingled roofs and of course warmer temperatures. All these weather events are starting to take its toll on older buildings and assets that were not designed to address rapid temperature swings. In order to prepare us for the future we need to look back at least 20 years to see the extreme changes and weather happenings, this will assist with starting to plan and develop best practices on how to prepare for the future. An example of weather extremes are increased frequency of high winds. A First Nation community in Southern Ontario changed their building practices to accommodate extreme weather by switching to steel roofs installation on all new homes being constructed in their community. Further to that, any renovations that require new roofing now have the roof being replaced from the traditional asphalt shingles to steel roofing. The steel roofs when installed properly can handle higher wind gusts then asphalt shingles.

Some of the projects I am working on are: Solid Waste Study, Fitness Center Operations and Fire Hall Remediation.

Solid Waste Study
My office has been working with an IANC representative on applying for funding to do a landfill assessment and solid waste study for Whitefish River, this study will assist the community with future planning for landfill operations or entering a Municipal Type Serve Agreement (MTSA) to haul solid waste off the first nation to a landfill in a local municipality. We will also be looking into enhancing the recycling program with more education and possible curbside pickup.

Fitness Center Operations
Working alongside Health & Social Services and a local volunteer we are in the planning stages for the operations and management of the Fitness Center. Quotes for new equipment have been gathered and now the process of seeking funding and preparing applications is the next step. Once the plan has been developed and approved by Chief & Council we should have the center up and running this summer.

Fire Hall Remediation
Already the Fire Hall (constructed in 2002) is over 15 years old, some minor upgrades to building mechanical system and online generator are just a few items on the list for upgrades.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this report do not hesitate to contact my office or drop a line at publicworks@whitefishriver.ca.
Meow everyone!

I guess there is no use in talking about the weather as everyone I know has been talking about it. We should be getting our gardens and yards ready for the coming summer by now. My kitties are getting tired of the weather as well. They sit by the French doors in the living room looking outside watching the snowflakes coming down. I have had about four deer come around my house in the early morning and last Sunday they were grazing in front of my house all day. One was laying down while another one was keeping watch. It was so nice to see and watch these beautiful creatures and I tell people they have beautiful eyes and long eyelashes. The sure know how to put their eye makeup on. All of my eight cats are doing fine with the exception of Tinker. His fur is in desperate need of brushing as he has clumps of fur coming off of his coat. They go outside during the night and hang around on my front deck where they know it is safe and can dart into their outside house should a dog wander by. Luka has started losing his winter fat already and it won’t be long until the rest follow suit.

SOME CAT FACTS:
• Poet and novelist Dr. Samuel Johnson is said to have bought fresh oysters each day and fed them to his famous cat Hodge.
• Longhair cats were first seen in Europe in the early 16th century. The first known longhair, the Angora, was named after the region of the Turkish capital Ankara, from where it originated.
• In Australia a cat named Mancat attached himself to a Pug that was nearly blind and guided her around rooms, acting as her seeing-eye cat.
• In Indonesia, there is a tradition of pouring water over a cat’s back when the people need rain.
• Along with the giraffe and camel, the cat is the only animal that walks using both left feet, then right feet.

Well that is it for now until next time. Be sure to get your dogs or cats fixed to help keep the pet population down in our community. Remember to stop by and visit our elderly or shut-ins and have a nice chat with them, I am sure they would enjoy that.

’Till next time, take care.

One investment that we can all make towards our best news, is to end the language or negativity and myriad of rumours and untruths, together! Let’s begin by starting to repair our relationship. Let us rise as one to meet these defining challenges of our time, so that future generations, basking in the sunlit uplands of tomorrow, might thank us and say truly this was their finest investment.

We are in full construction for the New Elevated Storage Reservoir (ESR). Footings are being constructed and the work is on schedule. This exciting project includes:
