A PLACE OF VISIONS AND DREAMS

SENT VIA EMAIL

NOTICE TO ALL RECREATIONAL LEASING TENANTS OF WHITEFISH RIVER & WHITEFISH RIVER DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

This notice will advise our Leasing tenants that Whitefish River First Nation continues to remain under a State of Emergency and access is restricted. Also, to remind tenants of the Provincial Stay-At-Home Order which is in effect from January 14, 2020 until February 11, 2021. During this period, tenants are not to be occupying their cottages.

This notice will also remind tenants to abide by the Emergency Management Order declared on September 9, 2020, the September 14, 2020 letter and Waiver agreements (attached). And, to advise tenants of the procedure to follow when requesting to access your camp during the period from November 1, 2020 to April 30, 2021:

1. Tenants are required to contact the Lands Department at least one (1) week in advance via email requesting to access your camp, specify the dates and names of who will be attending camp. Gathering limits are to be adhered to.
2. Only leaseholders and their immediate family members who have signed and submitted waiver agreements are permitted to be at camp during the WRFN State of Emergency;
3. Tenants must abide by WRFN Travel protocols by completing the REVISED COVID Screening Questionnaire, and you must wait for a response from the Incident Commander before attending your camp;
4. The Lands Department will continue to monitor activity in our Cottage lot subdivisions.

WRFN Travel protocols and covid screening questionnaire can be found on our website at www.whitefishriver.ca under the COVID-19 tab. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Lands Department via email at keithn@whitefishriver.ca and kathleenm@whitefishriver.ca.

Miigwetch (thank you)
